13. B Sai Praneeth

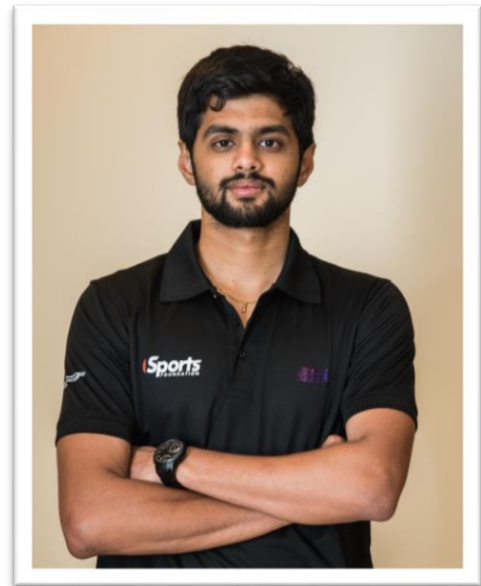

Date of Birth: 10th August 1992

Sport: Badminton

Hometown: Hyderabad

Training Base: Gopichand Academy, Hyderabad

Sai Praneeth's grandfather was the driving force behind his pursuit of badminton, and personally invested a lot of time and money into Sai Praneeth's initial training and development. His aunt was a badminton player and he picked up the sport from her at the age of 8.

Despite having the option to choose swimming, athletics and gymnastics as possible sport options, Sai always had a knack and natural talent for badminton. He is currently ranked 15th in the World (as of 8th June 2017). His incredible rise in ranking is by virtue of him bagging his first Superseries title in Singapore, which made him the second Indian male athlete to have captured a Superseries title. He did so by beating fellow GoSports athlete Kidambi Srikanth in the final. Later, in August, he was also part of India's largest ever team at the Badminton World Championships in Glasgow.
